

Gerhard Stuebben

Waco, Texas
210-683-1593
gerhard_stuebben@baylor.edu

EDUCATION

Baylor University, Department of Religion

2018–2023. Doctor of Philosophy, History of Christianity.

Dissertation Title: “The Preferential Option: A Diachronic Analysis of the Meaning of ‘Liberation’ and the Use of Marx in Gustavo Gutiérrez.”

Advisor: Dr. Carlos F. Cardoza-Orlandi

Baylor University, George W. Truett Theological Seminary

2014–2017. Master of Divinity, concentration in Biblical Studies and Languages. Summa Cum Laude.

University of Mary Hardin-Baylor

2009–2013. Bachelor of Arts. Majors in Music and Church History, minor in Biblical Languages. Summa Cum Laude.

COURSES TAUGHT AS TEACHER OF RECORD

REL 1350: The Christian Heritage. Baylor University, Spring 2023. College freshman level introduction to the history of Christianity.

REL 1310: The Christian Scriptures. Baylor University, Fall 2022. College freshman level introduction to the Christian Scriptures.

TEACHING AND ACADEMIC AWARDS

Outstanding Graduate Student Instructor Nominee; Baylor University, Spring 2023.

Outstanding Graduate Student Instructor Nominee; Baylor University, Fall 2022

Zondervan Award for Excellence in Biblical Greek; George W. Truett Theological Seminary, 2015-2016

Zondervan Award for Excellence in Biblical Hebrew; University of Mary Hardin-Baylor, 2012-2013

WORK AND OTHER ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

Postdoctoral Teaching Fellow — 2023–2024

As a Postdoctoral Teaching Fellow I taught four introductory courses on Christian Scripture and the history of Christianity in the Fall and Spring, respectively.

Graduate Assistant; Dr. D.H. Williams — 2019–2021

Dr. D.H. Williams was Professor of Patristics and Historical Theology. He taught courses in early Christianity.

Graduate Assistant; Dr. Doug Weaver — 2018–2019

Dr. Doug Weaver is Professor of Baptist Studies. He teaches courses in American religion.

Graduate Assistant; Dr. Todd Still — 2016–2017

Dr. Todd Still is the dean of Truett Seminary and the William M. Hinson Professor of Christian Scriptures. He teaches courses in New Testament and Greek.

Graduate Assistant; Dr. Joel Weaver — 2016–2017

Dr. Joel Weaver is a Senior Lecturer in Christian Scriptures. He teaches courses in New Testament and Greek.

President of the Baylor Society of Early Christianity; Baylor University – 2015-2017

Bible Teacher; Providence Preparatory School (Belton, Texas) – Spring 2014

Latin Teacher; Providence Preparatory School (Belton, Texas) – 2013–2014

Hebrew Tutor; University of Mary Hardin-Baylor — 2012–2014

PUBLICATIONS

Review of Global Visions of Violence: Agency and Persecution in World Christianity, edited by Jason Bruner and David C. Kirkpatrick. Forthcoming in the Journal of Church and State, Oxford University Press.

“Theological Engagements: Income Inequality.” The T&T Clark Encyclopedia of Christian Theology, edited by Joel Looper. Bloomsbury. Forthcoming.

“Theological Engagements: Global Capitalism.” The T&T Clark Encyclopedia of Christian Theology, edited by Joel Looper. Bloomsbury. Forthcoming.

Review of Evagrius and His Legacy, edited by Joel Kalvesmaki and Robin Darling Young. Published on 10/12/2016 by Reading Religion, a division of the American Academy of Religion.

Review of The School of Antioch: Biblical Theology and the Church in Syria, edited by Vahan S. Hovhannessian. Published on 8/26/2016 by Reading Religion, a division of the American Academy of Religion.

PAPER PRESENTATIONS

A Brotherhood Constructed in History: Gustavo Gutiérrez on Unity in a Divided World

3/5/2023: Southwest Commission on Religious Studies

Converting to Capitalism: A Study of Late Liberation Theology

3/4/2021: World Christianity Virtual Conference, Princeton Seminary

Augustine Through the Aegis: Aurelius Augustine and Noam Chomsky on Power, Politics, and the Problem of Sin

5/23/2017: National Association of Baptist Professors of Religion

“Beyond Good and Evil”: Sin, Knowledge, and Mastery in Dietrich Bonhoeffer’s Creation and Fall

3/12/2017: Southwest Commission on Religious Studies

The Harp in Hell: Intertextuality and Ethics in Ephrem the Syrian

2/25/2017: Central Texas Colloquium on Religion

The Divine Mixed Message: Was St. Ephrem the Syrian a Chalcedonian?

5/25/2016: National Association of Baptist Professors of Religion